State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, the children of the State of Idaho are its greatest natural resource; and

WHEREAS, children seek parents, mentors, and friends to aid them in reaching their important goals; and

WHEREAS, families and members of the community play vital roles in helping children develop a positive image, sense of belonging, and a sense of competence; and

WHEREAS, National Kids Day, in conjunction with Youthfest, is being supported by DrugFree Idaho, Boys & Girls of America, and other organizations that serve the youth of our state and reach thousands of youth through their services and community involvement; and

WHEREAS, National Kids Day emphasizes the importance of building meaningful relationships with kids; and

WHEREAS, the organizations associated with National Kids Day should be commended for their extraordinary contributions and commitment to improving the lives of children and young adults in our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim August 10th 2005, to be in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this tenth day of August in the year of our Lord two thousand and five and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirtieth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred sixteenth.
